

Shreeya Parekh

Victoria Woehr

Early Cyberattacks in the Russia-Ukraine War

This presentation will provide an outline of cyberattacks from January 2022 to March 2022 connected to the Russia-Ukraine war. There will be a detailed analysis of certain major cyber incidents during this time, a brief overview will be given of the other events. The presentation will conclude with a trend analysis of the cyber incidents.

Biography

Shreeya Parekh is a junior at the University of Delaware studying Computer Science with a focus in cybersecurity, as well as Political Science. I am also a member of the university's Cybersecurity Scholars program since my freshman year, studying cyber-policy.

Victoria Woehr is a senior Cybersecurity Scholar at the University of Delaware. I am studying finance and accounting with a minor in cybersecurity. I have participated in cybersecurity research since my freshman year.