

Jon Bell

Employment Scams — What Job Seekers and Job Posters Need to Know

Employment scams are the #1 riskiest scam according to the Better Business Bureau (BBB), and the 8th most common fraud type reported to the FTC. With the staggering unemployment numbers since the advent of COVID-19, these scams are increasing. BBB's presentation will define and examine how employment scams work, showing examples that have targeted Delaware businesses and consumers. The presentation includes power point and Q+A, and will help participants understand and share how to identify and avoid employment scams personally and for their business.

Biography

Jon Bell has a 10-year history with Better Business Bureau (BBB), working to track fraud and scams targeting Delaware. BBB works with local law enforcement and state agencies, as well as with local banks and financial organizations to identify threats and areas where Delawareans are vulnerable. Jon does frequent outreach for businesses and the public, sharing local and international data geared towards helping reduce victimization and losses.